Brief History and Background of the Institution

Khadir Mohideen College was founded in 1955 by Kalvithanthai Late Haji.S.M.S. Shaik Jalaludeen as an affiliated college to the University of Madras and then affiliated to Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, when it was formed in 1982. The College was re-accredited (Second cycle) with 'B' grade by NAAC in 2011. The college is governed by M.K.N.Mathurasa Trust. It is established in an extended land area of 17 acres as a religious minority institution. Our college was upgraded as a Post Graduate Institution in 1985.

Khadir Mohideen College provides quality, affordable, value based, job oriented education to all the students' folk. It offers, in aided and self-supported streams, 16 UG programmes, 13 PG programmes, 8 M.phil programmes and 1 Diploma programme. Also it paves a best research ground having 10 research departments. The college follows the dual semester system.

The college has eminent and experienced faculty members and administrative staff members. Nearly 2800 students are studying in the campus. Our qualified and outstanding faculty members actively partake in research activities, conduct National/International seminars and Conferences and present research articles, thereby bringing laurels to the Institution all over the world.

Objectives of the Institution

1. To provide higher education to the suppressed and socially backward sections of the society in general and Muslim minority in particular.
2. To inculcate religious and moral values in students and impart training to them so as to have an all-round development of their personality.
3. To provide cost-effective and quality higher education to cater the educational needs of the Muslim community and other socially and economically disadvantaged students including the fishermen folks.
4. To strive to achieve excellence in quality teaching, learning and research.
5. To cherish innovation and resourcefulness to promote economic and community development through enterprising spirit and productive partnership.
6. To attract and support multifariousness in education.
7. To strengthen the community and industry relationship by providing programmes and services in response to our constitutional needs.
8. To develop leadership quality in students.
